Re:- Robert Erling.

Yesterday I again visited Mrs. Mary Strubey at the Maple Park House, Lincoln Highway, Franklin Park section, where she is at present employed as a kitchen helper. The Russell's had been to see her but she still persists that she does not want to get mixed up in the case. I had a long talk with her. She admitted that she was present when Erling spoke to Mrs. Russell. I repeated the story which Mrs. Russell had told me concerning her conversation with Erling and that I simply wanted to know what her recollection was. She said, well Mrs. Russell is telling the truth, but I don't want to get mixed up in the case.

Mr. Feltmenstein (spelling may be incorrect) the proprietor of the Inn who I find is very much in sympathy with us, has promised to talk with her and endeavored to prevail upon her to tell what she knows.

I feel that we will undoubtedly be able to eventually get this woman's story. I will see her again in a day or two.

Respectfully yours,

DAVID THOMPSON.
